- Hats and sunglasses - It can be bright on the beach.
- Layers – In Summer a pair of shorts and a tank top can be all you need all day. Other times per year you will experience up to 75 degrees during the day and 50 degrees at night.
- Beach Towels - Some of the houses supply them, but best to bring your own.
- Beach Blankets - Some of the houses supply beach chairs and beach mats, but few supply Beach Blankets. Please do not use regular blankets from the houses.
- Paper Products – It is customary when renting in the area to have one roll of toilet tissue in each bathroom. Likewise you may find a roll of paper towels. Past that you need to bring or buy additional paper products.
- Containers – Almost everyone brings back souvenirs and shells. Bring your own containers for these souvenirs. You might also be bringing back leftovers from your stay so bring containers for the food as well.
- Bottled Water for drinking, cooking, coffee and brushing your teeth. Remember the water in Mexico is for cleaning, bathing, and watering only.

All of these things can be purchased in Mexico except the Insurance. It is extremely important that you buy Mexican Insurance before you enter Mexico.
